Images from the Roger Therond collection - Roger Théron 1999

Une passion française vous invite à la visite privée d'une des plus importantes collections du monde, celle de Roger Therond. Directeur général et "l'œil" de Paris Match, il montre pour la première fois son "champ de rêves": "En trente ans, j'ai franchi les trois étapes du collectionneur: jeu, chasse, aujourd'hui sérénité. Après avoir beaucoup travaillé et beaucoup aimé, on se surprend à revenir sur ce que l'on a réuni. On s'aperçoit que s'inscrivent dans vos choix, en filigrane, votre jeunesse, vos souvenirs, vos fantasmes, avoués ou non. On se trouve sans s'être cherché. Votre démarche est privée et rêvée. Comment s'imposent le port de Sète, et Rome, et Athènes et Istanbul, et l'Égypte des Pharaons et notre Narbonnaise? Que viennent faire ici les réminiscences d'une France médiévale et son accès à la modernité? Et la gloire et la chute de l'Empire? Pourquoi s'attarder sur ces hommes et ces femmes du XXe siècle qui allaient bouleverser l'art de la photographie? Est-ce le fruit d'une élaboration peaufinée, d'un hasard productif, d'une volonté secrète? D'une nonchalance égocentrique?... Quoi qu'il en soit, montrer sa collection c'est la perdre. Elle est à vous." Une passion française is a private tour of one of the world's major collections of vintage photographs, that of Roger Therond, Editor in Chief and "The Eye" of Paris Match. It present for the first time what he calls his "Dream Sampler": "In thirty years, I have passed through the three phases of collecting: play, hunt, and today serenity. After having worked and loved a great deal, I catch myself thinking again about what I have assembled. I realize that my choices were interwoven with memories of youth and fantasies, whether conscious or not. We find ourselves without having looked for ourselves. It is a private way, like dreaming. What connects the port of Sète and Rome, Athens and Istanbul? The Egypt of the pharaohs and the Narbonnaise? Why these memories of medieval France and its march into modernity? Or the rise and fall of the Empire? Why dwell on these 20th century men and women who were to revolutionize the art of photography? Is it a product of refined elaboration, creative chance, a secret will, or egocentric whim?... Whatever, to show a collection is to lose it. Now it is yours".

From Cold War To Hot Peace - Michael McFaul 2018-05-08

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER | From the diplomat Putin wants to interrogate—and has banned from Russia—comes a revelatory inside account of US-Russia relations across the three decades following the Cold War. In 2008, when Michael McFaul was asked to leave his perch at Stanford and join an unlikely presidential campaign, he had no idea that he would find himself at the beating heart of one of today's most contentious and consequential international relationships. As President Barack Obama's adviser on Russian affairs, McFaul helped craft the United States' policy known as "reset" that fostered new and unprecedented collaboration between the two countries. And then, as US ambassador to Russia from 2012 to 2014, he had a front-row seat when this fleeting, hopeful moment crumbled with Vladimir Putin's return to the presidency. This riveting inside account combines history and memoir to tell the full story of US-Russia relations from the fall of the Soviet Union to the new rise of the hostile, paranoid Russian president. From the first days of McFaul's ambassadorship, the Kremlin actively sought to discredit and undermine him, hassling him with tactics that included dispatching protesters to his front gates, slandering him on state media, and tightly surveilling him, his staff, and his family. From Cold War to Hot Peace is an essential account of the most consequential global confrontation of our time.

Some Like It Hot at the Picture House by the Sea - Holly Hepburn 2017-07-31

The brilliant new series from the bestselling author of The Star and Sixpence series. Perfect for all fans of Cathy Bramley. The little picturehouse by the sea is the Palace at Polwhipple - a lovely art deco cinema, nestled in front of azure Cornish seas. But it is long past its heyday now, and its only saving grace is Ferelli's, the family run ice-cream concession in the foyer, which is widely known as the best ice cream for miles. So when Ferdie, the owner of Ferelli's, falls ill, his granddaughter Gina drops everything to come and help out. But when she arrives she is dismayed by the state of the cinema, which she remembers fondly from summer holidays when she was little, and she is determined to give it the makeover it deserves. Along with local builder Ben Pascoe, she sets about reviving the Palace to its former glory. But the cinema needs more than a lick of paint. Its very future is under threat from a developer with greed in his eyes. Can Gina save the place before it is too late?

Isky - Matt Stone 2017-02-15

p.p1 {margin: 0.0px 0.0px 0.0px 0.0px; font: 12.0px Arial} To tell the life story of Ed "Isky" Iskenderian is to tell the history of hot rodding in America. Ed was there from the very beginning. Born in 1921 to first-generation Armenian immigrants, Ed's first hobby was ham radio, but like many young men in the years before World War II, his interest turned to automobiles, especially hot rods. Ed had natural skills in metal working and machining that were developed in high school. He wanted to further develop those skills, so he joined the Air Corps to continue his education and flew with Air Transport Command. By the time Ed mustered out of the service, the California hot rod scene was in full bloom, with tens of thousands of vets who had the desire to make cars go fast. Isky: Ed Iskenderian and the History of Hot Rodding, tells the whole story, from his pre-war Lake Muroc and car club activities, his service in the military, starting a small business fabricating parts and making cams in the back of a rented shop, and then selling cams to other rodders. It covers how he grew a business from a single cam grinder and became the leading cam authority in barely 10 years. Ed was a gifted machinist, and he also had a natural knack for promotion. He purchased an ad in the second issue of Hot Rod magazine, sensing something big; his instincts, as always, were right. He was also the first to use T-shirts and uniforms as promotion. Not only was he an early pioneer in the industry for print advertising and catalogs, he was also among the first to understand the value of having successful race cars using his cams in their engines and wearing his decals on their fenders. The biggest names in the racing industry were running Isky cams, and Ed made sure the world knew it. Ed's company name went on to become one of the household names in the performance community. His continued success is an entertaining tale of mingling with industry icons, insight into the business of hot rodding, great stories of yesterday and today, and a life very well lived. You will enjoy the stories recorded here as much as Ed "Isky" Iskenderian seems to enjoy telling them.
