Imagined Theatres - Daniel Sack 2017-04-07

Imagined Theatres collects theoretical dramas written by some of the leading scholars and artists of the contemporary stage. These dialogues, prose poems, and microfictions describe imaginary performance events that explore what might be possible and impossible in the theatre. Each scenario is mirrored by a brief accompanying reflection, asking what they might mean for our thinking about the theatre. These many possible worlds circle around questions that include: In what way is writing itself a performance? How do we understand the relationship between real performances that engender imaginary reflections and imaginary conceptions that form the basis for real theatrical productions? Are we not always imagining theatres when we read or even when we sit in the theatre, watching whatever event we imagine we are seeing?

What's the Time, Mr Wolf? - Sofia Bond 2021-03-19

A fun way for kids to practise telling the time in Italian! Based on the popular children's game, What's the time, Mr Wolf? is a bilingual Italian-English picture story book that encourages beginners and young learners to tell the time on 15 colourful, cartoon clocks. Be careful of Mr Wolf, it might be time for him to eat! Includes o'clock, quarter past, half past and quarter to the hour times. ♥Level Two picture story book - ideal for kids ages 5 to 8 (see below for guide) ♥XL size pages ♥Telling the time themed vocabulary ♥Cute colourful illustrations ♥Great for kids learning Italian in a bilingual home or in bilingual or multicultural education ♥Teaching resource for bilingual parents to modern foreign language teachers ♥More titles available Ottoly Square Ottoly Square is a small, independent publishing house dedicated to promoting fun and imaginative bilingual children's literature. We publish bilingual children's fiction, non-fiction and themed activity books in 11 different language combinations for a range of different learning stages.

♥Level One Our Level One books are designed to introduce first words and simple phrases to very young learners. Each book focuses on 5 to 10 basic words within a theme and these are repeated to build learning confidence and self esteem. Level One activity books include targeted games such as mazes, colouring pages and matching pairs. Ideal for use with young children aged between 3 and 6 (such as those in preschool, kindergarten and early years education) at the beginning of their learning. ♥Level Two Our Level Two books aim to expand vocabulary and introduce simple grammar concepts. Each book introduces 10 to 20 words and phrases within a theme and these are repeated and linked to different activities, such as counting games to support learning. Ideal for use with young children aged 5 to 8 (for example those in early years and junior school) who have some familiarity with the target language. ♥Level Three Our Level Three books build upon the foundations of language learning to introduce more grammar and vocabulary (around 20 to 50 words and phrases within a theme). Level Three activity books continue to repeat learned vocabulary to reinforce retention but also allow language learners to utilize the language within themed activities such as numbers in addition and subtraction games and repetition of vocabulary in targeted activities such as what comes next and can you find?. Ideal for language learners aged 7 to 9 who are expanding their knowledge and confidence in the target language. ♥Level Four Our Level Four books are designed as a launchpad for confident, young language learners to move forwards with their foreign language education. The number of words and phrases used increases to over 50 and grammar becomes more complex. Level Four activity books continue to use repetition of vocabulary as an effective educational tool and activities remain focused to allow learners to explore the use of language. Ideal for confident language learners aged 8 to 10 who are ready for more challenging vocabulary and grammar concepts.

Classic Playground Games - Susan Brewer 2009-04-22

"[A] combination of history and meaning behind favorite playground games and the verses . . . virtually guaranteed to make you laugh and sing" (Fiona Shoop, author of How to Deal in Antiques). This delightful book records favorite childhood games and recalls forgotten rhymes. With more children suffering from obesity, Susan Brewer looks at the social games we used to play from skipping to chase games that used up our energy during recess. Instead of costly computer games, we used rhyming games, played Jacks, and showed our balancing skills during competitive games of hopscotch. A charming book, full of anecdotes and nostalgia for how we remember our favorite place at school—the playground.

Games, Rhymes, and Wordplay of London Children - N. G. N. Kelsey 2019-02-26

This book presents a unique annotated collection of some 2000 playground games, rhymes, and wordplay of London children. It charts continuity and development in childlore at a time of major social and cultural change and offers a detailed snapshot of changes in the traditions and language of young people. Topics include: starting a game; counting-out rhymes; games (without songs); singing and chanting games; clapping, skipping, and ball bouncing games; school rhymes and parodies; teasing and taunting; traditional belief and practice; traditional wordplay; and a concluding miscellany. Recorded mainly in the 1980s by primary schoolteacher Nigel Kelsey, transcribed verbatim from the children's own words, and accompanied by extensive commentaries and annotation, the book sets a wealth of new information in the wider historical and contemporary context of existing studies in Britain, Ireland, and other parts of the English-speaking world. This valuable new resource will open new avenues for research and be of particular interest to folklorists and linguists, as well as to those working across the full spectrum of social, cultural, and educational studies.

So wie du bist - Debi Gliori 2012

Die Wim-Hof-Methode - Wim Hof 2021-04-26

»Mit der Wim-Hof-Methode erwachst du zu deiner inneren Quelle von Kraft und Erfüllung. Du wirst feststellen, dass du dein Schicksal selbst in die Hand nehmen kannst.« Wim Hof Er saß knapp zwei Stunden in einem Eisbad, bestieg den Kilimandscharo lediglich in Shorts und Schuhen und lief bei minus 20 Grad einen Halbmarathon barfuß durch arktische Eisfelder: Wim Hof ist davon überzeugt, dass er kein Ausnahmefall ist - jeder Mensch kann das scheinbar Unmögliche schaffen! Leidenschaftlich und fesselnd schildert Wim Hof seinen Weg zum weltbekannten »Iceman« und legt erstmals umfassend seine revolutionäre Methode dar. Diese basiert auf drei Säulen: die Kraft der Kälte, bewusstes Atmen und Mentaltraining. Die Wim-Hof-Methode wird weltweit an acht Universitäten wissenschaftlich begleitet. Neueste Forschungserkenntnisse und erstaunliche Erfahrungsberichte zeigen, dass sie bereits innerhalb weniger Tage die Gesundheit entscheidend verbessert: Sie stärkt das Immunsystem, steigert die Stressresistenz, verbessert das Schlafverhalten und ermöglicht höhere sportliche und mentale Leistungen. Ob jung oder alt - jeder kann die Wim-Hof-Methode anwenden und Zugang zu ungeahnten Energiequellen erschließen, Selbstheilungskräfte aktivieren und innere Grenzen sprengen.

A 1950s Childhood - Paul Feeney 2010-12-26

Do you remember Pathé News? Taking the train to the seaside? The purple stains of iodine on the knees of boys in short trousers? Knitted bathing costumes? Then the chances are you were born in or around 1950. To the young people of today, the 1950s seem like another age. But for those born around then, this era of childhood feels like yesterday. This delightful collection of photographic memories will appeal to all who grew up in this post-war decade; they include pictures of children enjoying life out on the streets and bombsites, at home and at school, on holiday and at events. These wonderful period pictures and descriptive captions will bring back this decade of childhood, and jog memories about all aspects of life as it was in post-war Britain.

The Games Book - Huw Davies 2010-10-15

Have you ever struggled to remember your favourite childhood game so you can teach it to your own children? Do you love to reminisce about the good old days when it was all just good old-fashioned fun? The Games Book has the answers. Packed full of traditional indoor and outdoor games from yesteryear, it contains something for family members of all ages to enjoy. Each game has instructions and some hints and tips for beginners. An ideal companion for rainy days and family holidays. Entries include: . Playground games - What's the Time, Mr Wolf? . Tag games - Stick in the Mud and Marco Polo . Card games - Patience and Rummy . Paper games - Consequences and Hangman . Ball games - Sevens and Kingy Sugarbread - Balli Kaur Jaswal 2016

Pin must not become like her mother, but nobody will tell her why. She seeks clues in Ma's cooking when she's not fighting other battles—being a bursary girl at an elite school and facing racial taunts from the bus uncle. Then her meddling grandmother moves in, installing a portrait of a watchful Sikh guru and a new set of house rules. Old secrets begin to surface but can Pin handle learning the truth? Reader Reviews: "This novel is sensitively written, and raises important issues subtly: racism and racialisation; religiosity and its relation to identity; patriarchal values; class; and the intersection of Christianity and capitalism in the wonderful speech about 'spiritual bank accounts'. All the characters have depth and complexity and the two layers of the narrative (the experiences of Pin and of her mother Jini) are skilfully blended. There are some beautiful descriptive passages, and I like the way in which metaphors are used sparingly, but to good effect." —Philip Holden, editor of Writing Singapore and Epigram Books Fiction Prize 2015 judge "Pin is an earnest and enchanting child, through whose curious and clear-sighted eyes we see family life and complications and childhood cliques and racism. But this entertaining book also has touching insights into love, hope and wisdom, and characters that will stay with you long after you finish it." —Ovidia Yu, author of Aunty Lee's Chilled Revenge "This is the most glorious mic drop moment in Singaporean Literature. Sugarbread is such a tender and powerful response to the many celebrated voices in Singapore that represent minority experiences through tokenism or ignore them altogether. Balli Kaur Jaswal has made me feel like my ten-year-old self could be someone's protagonist, like my skin belongs in the pages of books in my country. She's turned the mirrors on Singapore and our conversations about identity in a spectacular fashion. Her prose is delicate, precise and aching. Her storytelling lingers with you for days. This novel is triumphant and absolutely essential reading for anyone who cares about living in this city." —Pooja Nansi, author of Love is an Empty Barstool

Mr Wolf's Birthday Surprise - Colin Hawkins 1987

Mr. Wolf gets very cross, indeed, when he discovers that his friends are all too busy to play with him. This tale from Colin Hawkins is sure to tickle the funny bones of the young crowd. Companion volumes include "What's the Time, Mr. Wolf?" and "Mr. Wolf's Week."

What's The Time, Mr Wolf? - Gill Budgell 2003-01-27

One of six small book versions of number rhymes in the Preparing to Read phase (Pattern and Rhyme strand) of Cambridge Reading. Designed to encourage numeracy and literacy skills through memorable rhymes, these colourful books are an ideal way to introduce mathematical vocabulary to young children. Early learning goals for communication, language and literacy and mathematical development addressed in the books are listed, together with high frequency words. Suggestions for text, sentence and word level activities can also be found in each book. The books are available in packs of 6, making them ideal for group work. Extended notes and copymasters for each book are available at the Cambridge University Press website <http://www.cambridge.org> Each rhyme is taken from the Cambridge Number Rhymes Big Book and Cassette pack, providing valuable extension and consolidation opportunities.
